Post 5-10-68

Judge Dismisses Suit Against CIA

PITTSBURGH, May 9 (UPI) — A Federal judge yesterday dismissed a suit filed by an insurance examiner demanding the Central Intelligence Agency make public its expenditures.

Judge John L. Miller ruled Williams B. Richardson, 48, of Greensburg, Pa., had "no standing" since he had not suffered harm by the lack of disclosure of the funds.